

Infor Marketplace: Where builders share innovation

Infor Platform Technology

Infor Marketplace is aimed at making it simple for customers to discover, buy, and use industry and micro-vertical solutions that integrate with and enhance Infor’s portfolio of business software. Whether it’s partner-developed applications that meet certain niche industry requirements or free, Infor-developed content (such as visualizations and extensions), Marketplace showcases curated solutions that are available to Infor’s 65,000+ customers.

The speed and quality at which Marketplace’s enterprise software ecosystem is evolving is attributed to the Infor technology platform’s rich set of cohesive services optimized for the cloud. Pre-integrated services include data integration, workflows, alerts, information widgets, and more. Marketplace makes it easy and intuitive for industry experts in the community to apply their knowledge to extending core Infor business software capabilities.
